1. The Canadian Federation of University Women (CFUW) Scarborough Entrance Scholarship seeks to recognize and encourage a student's high quality academic work (a minimum B average is required) and outstanding leadership qualities in his/her school or community.
2. The Canadian Federation of University Women (CFUW) Scarborough Entrance Scholarship is awarded annually to a student applying directly from a Scarborough area secondary school. Secondary school students who are candidates for admission to U of T Scarborough in the year in which they are completing their university entrance requirements are eligible to apply. Applicants must be Canadian Citizens or Permanent Residents of Canada, residents of Ontario and must demonstrate financial need. There is one award valued at approximately $1,600.

Complete the University of Toronto Advance Planning for Students (UTAPS) application to show financial information. This application can only be completed on-line at the following location: www.adm.utoronto.ca/utaps The deadline for the UTAPS application submission is March 2, 2012. (Note that other award applications may have an earlier UTAPS deadline in February.)

3. Each application must include the name of one person from whom a written recommendation on behalf of the applicant is required.
5. The deadline for receipt of the application and letter of reference is March 2, 2012.

Notes:

The Selection Committee will include representatives from the Canadian Federation of University Women – Scarborough.

The scholarship recipient will be notified by letter, mailed from UTSC (normally by the end of April). The award shall be credited towards the recipient's tuition account. In the event that an applicant chooses to enrol at an institution other than at the U of T Scarborough, he or she will forfeit the award.
